

The decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to have their stations air "Stolen Honor" just two weeks before the general elections raises questions about "fair and balanced" journalism. This is an example of the dangers of media consolidation. When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Biased programming does not serve the public interest. If they do air "Stolen Honor", they must present the other viewpoint and air a pro-Kerry program like "Going Upriver" shortly after.

Please prohibit Sinclair from having their stations air "Stolen Honor". To do so dishonors our democracy.

Thank you.
